A Message from the President

Clients, Colleagues and Friends of CMA:

Diversity. It is a ubiquitous word used throughout the industry, but at Chen Moore, it is a way of life. Late this summer, I kicked off another series of my "Breakfast with the Boss" meetings – where I meet one on one with each employee in the firm – with each of our summer interns to get their impression of the firm before they leave to return to school full time. In one of these breakfasts, when I asked an intern one of the things he liked about the firm, he mentioned a number of things that were wonderful to hear, but specifically noted a visit to one of our offices where "everyone was like him." At first I thought he was referring to a similarity between his Hispanic heritage and that of some other members of that office, but as we continued to talk, I realized it was more. It wasn't that he was the only Hispanic in a room full of people from the same country, nor was it as uncomfortable as being the only Hispanic in a room full of non-Hispanics – it was the happy medium in between, diversity.

We aren't from the same place, nor did we all speak the same first language. We didn't all go to the same school, nor did we study the same subjects. We have more differences than this page will allow me to list, but we are just one firm – happy that our differences make us deeper and richer for the experience. Just like the State of Florida where we were founded, we are stronger as a result of these differences. As such, I'm proud to be a native Floridian, and ever prouder to be a member of the diverse Chen Moore Family. See page 2 for a fun game to see how well you know where our employees are from! Email marketing@chenmoore.com for a chance to win a $25 Visa Gift Card!

I also participated in an Infrastructure Business Development Trade Mission and Trade Américas Expo (page 2) and led the company's 12th annual planning meeting (page 3). We are also proud that Jason Haeseler, P.E. and Michael Buick, P.E. became CMA's 6th and 7th FELI graduates (page 3). Jason and Mike recently completed a dog training facility for service dogs with their class. Jason was also recently accepted into Leadership Gainesville (page 3) and I will participate in Leadership Florida (page 3).

And as always, please take a moment to review our Chenniversaries and birthdays and another new addition to our firm on page 4.

Sincerely,

Peter Moore, P.E., LEED® AP
President
